

Manager or leader? Or both?

During my years working with transformations towards excellence, people happiness and prosperity I have had the pleasure of working with management and leadership in many different organizations. However, it has become evident that there is a major difference between managers/bosses and leaders. Nothing new or revolutionary insights. Yet, important to remember.

Let me pick some examples. Martin Luther King. Was he a manager or a leader? He was a leader! He inspired people and made change happen. JFK. Was he a manager or a leader? He was both! Same as Olof Palme.

Managers gets assigned a position. Leaders get followers.

Is mr Trump a leader or a manager? Neither. He is a disaster.
